Ally Pally capacity boost returns its status as top music venue

GLORY DAYS

By Lucy Purdy

THE stage is set for Alexandra Palace to recapture its "glory days" as London's music venue of choice after a successful bid to increase its audience capacity by 3,000.

An application by the Alexandra Palace Trading Company to increase the capacity of the Great Hall from 7,250 to 10,250 was agreed at a meeting of the council's licensing committee last week.

The decision will establish the palace as a competitor to the capital's other big-hitting music venues including the O2 Arena and Wembley Arena, according to managing director Rebecca Kane. She said: "Concert promoters have already indicated this increase will put us firmly among London's big-league venues, especially as the entire audience can stand and dance here. We've always attracted quality acts because of our location, the architecture, history and scale of the building, but this boost in numbers will make us more competitive and give us a higher profile with promoters and performers."

Ally Pally has hosted legendary names including the Rolling Stones, Led Zepellin, The Who and Black Sabbath as well as more recent artists such as Arctic Monkeys, Kings Of Leon, Franz Ferdinand and Paul Weller.

The increased capacity applies to concerts which end by 11pm and was agreed subject to three conditions: that no event take place at the ice rink at the same time, that extra toilets be provided and that security guards watch over fans leaving the park via a passageway at Duke's Avenue – which was highlighted by residents as a particular problem hotspot. Stephen and Suzanne Gainsley, who live in Duke's Avenue, were the only residents speaking against the plan at last Monday's meeting, saying their sleep was often disturbed by "noisy, hyped-up" music fans and expressing fears the increase may lead to more crime.

"This increase will put us firmly among London's big-league venues."

Acoustic draping will continue to be used to minimise noise from the building and shuttle buses provided to ferry concert-goers to Wood Green Underground station after events.

Police help ride out spate of bike thefts

By Lucy Purdy

THIEVES behind a spate of bike thefts in Highgate made away with bicycles worth £13,000 in three months.

Officers from the Highgate Safer Neighbourhood team are urging people to register their bicycles online for free in an attempt to curb the problem after 18 bicycles were reported stolen in the area between June 1 and August 31.

Four were taken from communal hallways after a door was forced open, one was taken from a school garden and one from a front garden. Two were stolen from garages which were burgled, one taken from a ransacked flat and nine were prised from railings and lamp-posts. In some cases, tenacious thieves even removed the sign from a post in order to slide the bike up and off.

Sergeant Leon Christodoulou said: "We've been going door to door to offer crime prevention advice on car and bike security and to register people's property on the internet."

He urged cyclists to visit www.immobillise.com to create a free, private portfolio of their property, which makes it easier to recover if lost or stolen, and warned people to be wary when buying secondhand cycles. Police have arrested two men on suspicion of handling stolen goods.

Don't be a victim: PC Carr with Ralph Crisp, chairman of Highgate Ward Panel, offer tips on how bike owners can protect their property

They advised cyclists to use a good quality lock and to attach bikes to immovable objects in busy, well-lit areas. Cyclists are also encouraged to take a colour photograph of their bicycle and write a description, including any unique features, to make it easier to trace if stolen and to take lights, pumps and quick-release saddles with them.

Sgt Christodoulou added: "We are happy for anyone that owns a bike to contact us on 020 8721 2673 and we will arrange to register the bike on the website for them at no cost."

Green Lanes set to sizzle at festival

GREEN LANES will be transformed into a "culinary carnival" on Sunday as it hosts the first ever Harringay Green Lanes Food Festival.

The bustling street, famed for its restaurants and grocers, will be closed to traffic from noon to 4pm and a stage set up near Burgoyne Road for shows by musicians and children.

A tantalising menu, including Turkish, Greek, Thai, Chinese, Indian, Italian and Jamaican food, will be served on the day, following months of planning by residents' groups, traders and Haringey Council.

The festival will kick off with a local history walk on Saturday, starting at 2.30pm from the Beaconsfield pub, and an open-air showing of the film Mama Mia! in Fairlands Park at 8pm.

On Sunday a marquee will host kids' activities and there will be a quiz for youngsters and more fun at nearby Woodlands Park Nursery. The festival will continue into the evening with live jazz at the Salisbury pub.

Baby Peter's killers have appeal rights denied, greeted by huge 'sigh of relief'

By Lucy Purdy

THE evil trio behind the death of baby Peter Connelly have been refused the chance to appeal against their prison sentences.

The 17-month-old's mother Tracey Connelly, 28, her partner Steven Barker, 33, and Barker's brother, 37-year-old Jason Owen, were all denied leave to appeal against their sentences by the Court of Appeal.

Connelly, Barker and Owen were handed down minimum prison stretches of five, 12 and three years respectively for causing or allowing his death. He died at home in Penshurst Road, Tottenham, in August 2007, after suffering more than 50 injuries including fractured ribs and a broken back.

It emerged during the trial that Baby Peter's mother had deliberately misled social services about the way her son had been treated, smearing the 17-month-old's body with chocolate to disguise his bruises.

Lynne Featherstone, MP for Hornsey and Wood Green, welcomed the decision to deny the three leave to appeal, predicting that people would "breathe a collective sigh of relief" at the refusal. She added: "These three people have been found guilty and now need to serve their punishment."

Because of the huge media and public interest in the case, it is likely Connelly, Barker and Owen will be given new identities on their release to protect them from possible vigilante attacks. Ms Featherstone predicted there would be widespread public anger if taxpayers' money was spent on security for the trio or if they were released after serving only their minimum jail terms.

Barker and Connelly's names were publicly released for the first time in August this year after an order protecting their identities expired. news.haringey@nlhnews.co.uk

Council defends actions amid bomber fostering accusations

HARINGEY Council has defended its decision to foster a child with relatives of a man who plotted to blow up transatlantic airliners, saying staff could not have known of the connection at the time.

After stories appeared in several national newspapers on Friday that a child was sent to live in the home of terrorist ringleader Abdulla Ahmed Ali, the council set the record straight this week.

Ali, from Walthamstow, will spend at least 40 years in jail after being found guilty alongside two other men of conspiracy to detonate bombs on airliners across the Atlantic.

But the spokeswoman explained that Ali did not live in the same property as the fostered child, the child was moved as soon as the police alerted the council to their investigation and said the family in question no longer fosters for Haringey. She added that all adults in the household underwent Criminal Records Bureau checks before any child was placed there and emphasised that none of the foster carers had been charged with any offence.

"As soon as the police alerted the council to this issue, the child was moved," she confirmed.

Ali, 28, was arrested in August 2006 after police became aware of his terrorist links. On September 7, a jury at Woolwich Crown Court convicted him, 28-year-old Tanvir Hussain and Assad Sarwar, 29, of conspiring to activate home-made liquid bombs capable of killing thousands of people after they heard Ali planned to target seven flights bound for the USA and Canada.

The trio's arrests in 2006 led to the tightening of restrictions of carrying liquids on to planes.

Convicted: Bomber Abdulla Ahmed Ali

Five youngsters shot and another stabbed in street

By Lucy Purdy

FIVE teenagers were shot and one stabbed when violence erupted on the streets of south Tottenham on Friday evening.

Two 16-year-olds were among those left with gunshot wounds after a dispute broke out between two groups of youths.

Just after 9.30pm, an 18-year-old man walking along Cornwall Road with a group of friends, was stabbed after he started arguing with another group of youngsters.

Two 16-year-olds, one 17-year-old, another 18-year-old and a 19-year-old were then shot as the argument escalated in the area around Cornwall Road, West Green Road and Phillip Lane.

All six victims were taken to hospital suffering from non life-threatening injuries and one was discharged on Saturday.

He and four other teenagers were then arrested and bailed over the weekend as detectives from the Trident Command, set up to investigate gun crime in London's black community, began piecing together what happened.

A police spokesman said detectives were keeping an "open mind" as to a possible motive for the shooting and that it was not yet known which group had fired the shots or how many weapons were involved in the violence.

Anyone who saw what happened or who has other information should call the incident room on 020 8733 4774.

Health warning over stolen drugs

MEDICINE-USERS are warned to be careful after a batch of out-of-date drugs was taken from a locked cupboard in an NHS health centre in Hornsey.

The stolen medication, which was due to be destroyed, was stolen from the centre in Park Road between 10.20am and 3.20pm last Thursday. It included the strong painkillers pethidine, diamorphine and morphine sulphate as well as anti-convulsion medicine diazepam.

Detective Sergeant Stephen O'Brien, of Haringey's burglary squad, said: "We believe the medication stolen may be of interest to drug users. These drugs are of medical grade, they are potent and could be harmful if not correctly administered."

Determination over 202 miles

Success: John Martin, fourth right, in Dam Square

Amsterdam cycle raises cash for kids' centre

CYCLISTS who biked their way from London to Amsterdam to raise money for child sufferers of cerebral palsy celebrated successfully completing their trip this week.

Eight riders took to two wheels in the third annual Cycle Holland event which covers more than 200 miles en route to the Netherlands capital. They have already raised £10,000 for the London Centre For Children With Cerebral Palsy, in Muswell Hill, which teaches children from birth until the age of 11, and hope to collect still more.

John Martin, who works as a solicitor in Wood Green, and is chairman of the centre's trustees, said the only difficulties were the unusually ferocious winds.

He said: "It was like cycling uphill on the flat. And then when you came to go uphill, it was even worse! It was soul-destroying at times. But apart from that, we were pleased everything went smoothly.

"I haven't been on a bike for 20 years before we started this.

"Most of it is pure determination. I've been involved in the centre for 30 years and it raises good money as well as making me do some exercise!"

The exhausted bunch returned home on September 11 after six days in the saddle clocking up 202 miles. Plans are already afoot for another trip next year.

"I think it's like childbirth in that, as soon as you've done it, you start forgetting how bad it was!" added John

The Muswell Hill Festival and Donkey Derby took place at Cherry Tree Wood on Sunday which also raised money for the London Centre For Children with Cerebral Palsy.

Hidden brook runs underneath library

A HIDDEN local landmark was uncovered this week by workmen renovating Coombes Croft Library in Tottenham.

A glass viewing panel will now be built into the pavement in Tottenham High Road after builders found the Moselle Brook running under the road.

Councillor Dhiren Basu, cabinet member for leisure, culture and lifelong learning at Haringey Council (pictured), said: "This will be a real feature for people to view at Coombes Croft Library. The renovation project will mean more space and facilities at the library including a meeting room for community groups and areas specifically for young people."

The library is currently being completely refurbished in a £1m renovation scheme partly funded by the Big Lottery Fund.

A village fete feel as crowds flock to Rec

MORE than 4,000 people flocked to Lordship Lane Recreation Ground in Tottenham on Saturday to enjoy a "lively but intimate" day of festivities.

Pony rides, a flower and produce show, children's procession, football tournament, face-painting, a dog show and peace picnic were among the day's activities during the annual festival which was organised by community groups and other bodies involved in the Lordship Rec Users Forum.

Dave Morris, from the Friends of Lordship Rec group and one of the event's co-ordinators, said: "This year's festival showcased the wide range of skills and abilities, concerns and voluntary efforts of Tottenham's residents and community groups.

"The breathtaking array of activities for people to join in were all geared to promoting what's great about our local communities and the potential of our green spaces. Someone said to me on the day that it was just like a local village fete, which I think pretty much summed up the atmosphere."

WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN SPECSAVERS' HEARING AIDS AND OUR MAIN COMPETITORS'?

ACCORDING TO RESEARCH ANYTHING UP TO £2,600

At Specsavers, we know that most people who suffer from hearing loss do so in both ears. We also know that wearing one hearing aid when two are required could still leave you with problems, but some companies charge so much that buying two is prohibitively expensive.

We've changed all that, with two hearing aids for the price of one.

That means we offer outstanding value for money. Independent research shows that Hidden Hearing charges on average £3,869 and Amplifon on average £2,528 for two hearing aids, which would cost just £1,195 for comparable products at Specsavers.

Special Feature

in association with The National Lottery

£85 MILLION*

How to play and win on EuroMillions

- Pick five main numbers from 1-50 and two Lucky Star numbers from 1-9, or choose a Lucky Dip® for a random selection of numbers
- EuroMillions costs £1.50 for each line of numbers and can be played up to four weeks in advance³
- EuroMillions tickets are available from your local National Lottery retailer, you can play online at www.national-lottery.co.uk or even on your mobile phone

- Start to win prizes by matching just three numbers or more in any combination (main numbers and Lucky Star numbers)

- Match all five main numbers and two Lucky Star numbers to win the jackpot – on Friday 18 September, if the jackpot isn't won, it will roll to the following Friday, subject to the Game Procedures.

- To find out the winning numbers, watch the EuroMillions draw show at 11.35pm every Friday on BBC One – or check the results at www.national-lottery.co.uk

£85 million statistics

- According to Coutts & Co, HRH The Queen's bankers, an £85 million EuroMillions jackpot winner would earn approximately £1,513 per day in interest alone – that's £10,625 per week, £46,041 per month and a mammoth £552,500 per year⁴
- It would take a Coutts cashier almost 113 hours, or four-and-a-half solid days, to count £85 million in £50 notes⁴
- If you stacked £85 million in £50 notes, the pile would reach approximately 200 metres – that's nearly four times the height of Nelson's Column and 40 metres taller than Blackpool Tower⁴
- If you laid £85m worth of £50 notes from end to end, they would cover a distance of 265km – that's roughly the distance from London to Manchester!⁴

Mega-Jackpot this Friday

This Friday (18 September 2009), there is a massive £85 million* EuroMillions Mega Jackpot up for grabs. Just imagine.....

If the monumental jackpot isn't won, it will roll to the following week, subject to the Game Procedures. Fingers crossed that you win it big on Friday.

Eternal Good Luck

POP star and actress Kelle Bryan has joined the EuroMillions team as the latest draw show presenter. The sexy star, who shot to fame in girl band Eternal, will be presenting the show every third week, alongside regular hosts OJ Borg and Carole Machin. Looking forward to her debut performance on Friday 18th September, Kelle said:

"I'm really excited at the chance to present the EuroMillions draw show and to help create lots of new winners across the UK. From years in the music industry, I'm used to hitting the number one spot so fingers crossed we might send a player to the top of the winners' chart this week. Let's hope we can break all records and create the UK's largest jackpot winner ever."

As with all draw show presenters Kelle can't play The National Lottery, but she can still dream about what she would have spent the money on. "If I scooped the jackpot I would invest in a substantial property portfolio – including the really nice house I viewed at the weekend, a life time supply of Jimmy Choo's, finish my mum's house in St Lucia and definitely make a social contribution."

Kelle's favourite numbers are 3, which to her means completeness and perfection, number 5, which means goodness and grace and number 1 which represents unity.

EuroMillions Facts

- In 2007 Glasgow postal administrator, Angela Kelly, became the UK's biggest lottery winner, after banking the entire £35.4 million EuroMillions jackpot on 10 August. Other mega UK EuroMillions winners include Brian and Joan Caswell from Bolton, who only this June won a staggering £24.9m

- The European EuroMillions lottery crown is held by Dolores McNamara from the Republic of Ireland, who won £77 million in July 2005

- With nine countries now playing – the UK, France, Spain, Austria, Belgium, Ireland,

- Luxembourg, Portugal and Switzerland – EuroMillions is the world's biggest multinational lottery game¹

- In the UK to date, the total amount of EuroMillions prize money paid out exceeds £1 billion, while over 68 million individual prizes have been won²

- By playing EuroMillions, communities all over the nation will benefit – as all the Good Causes money raised in the UK from EuroMillions ticket sales, stays in the UK

Are you living in a lucky lottery hotspot?

Since The National Lottery launched nearly 15 years ago, more than £2.8 billion in top prizes has been paid out and nearly 600 millionaires have been created in London and Home Counties. In the capital and its hinterland, there have been 1,380 top prizes won since the lottery began in 1994, totalling a staggering £2,801,222,147.

In and around London, the Medway Towns (ME) in Kent tops the list of this year's luckiest postcode areas for lottery winners – while the Essex boroughs of Ilford (IG postcode) and Romford (RM postcode) are in second and third place respectively. In Greater London, major winners include a 33-strong syndicate of administrators at Camden Council which shared £10,055,900 in January 1996, and Crouch End chef, Roger Robar, whose £5.8 million win in June 1996 was the recipe for success which enabled him to buy the restaurant. More recently, Diane Hill, an Activity Co-ordinator in a care home in Feltham won £2,203,775. Her win, from the Lotto draw on 11 July 2009, allowed Diane to afford the wedding of her dreams.

CAPITAL'S CYCLISTS TO BE GIVEN FREEDOM OF THE CITY

British Olympic cycling heroes join Mayor of London and tens of thousands of Londoners at the climax of summer Skyride series

On Sunday 20 September, the Mayor of London, Boris Johnson, and Sky will host what is set to be the biggest mass participation cycling event ever held in the capital.

Details of the Mayor of London's Skyride - formerly known as Sky Sports London Freewheel - have been published today, alongside maps of the new larger 15km route that takes in some of London's most iconic sights.

The free event will give tens of thousands of cyclists the chance to enjoy traffic-free city centre roads for the day, encouraging riders of all ages and abilities to get on their bikes with friends and family. The route takes riders past landmarks such as Buckingham Palace, St Paul's Cathedral and The Tower of London and will feature St James Park and the river views of The Embankment. For the first time the route will also include the heart of the City of London, allowing cyclists a traffic-free trip down Canon Street, Bank and Cheapside.

As well as providing a unique opportunity to see one of the world's greatest cities in a new light and enjoying a day cycling with friends and family, there will also be a variety of exciting activities to create a carnival atmosphere in the capital. Highlights include:

Skyride Street Zone - Professional BMX and Mountain Bike riders will perform tricks, with the opportunity for members of the public to take a course in stunt riding.

Skyride Style Zone - Participants can get a free bike make-over using the most up to-date designs and accessories.

Skyride Photo Point - At designated points riders smile as they ride past cameras for a free memento of the day to download at www.goskyride.com

Skyride Active Zone - Tips on health and wellbeing from British Cycling and Bike4Life - part of the Department of Health's 'Change4Life' campaign to tackle obesity in the UK.

Skyride Active Zone - Cycle Sprint Challenge - An opportunity to try out cycle sprinting on Watt bikes - used to measure power - and compete against friends and family as well as beat celebrity sprint times.

Skyride Family - Designated area for kids and families, where children can learn new bike skills with free Go-Ride sessions from British Cycling professionals.

Boris Johnson, Mayor of London, said: "It's been a great summer of cycling in London, with more and more people discovering that ours is a fantastic city in which to go by two wheels. We had some 11,000 at our Hounslow event, and the central London extravaganza promises to be the biggest and best yet. The fantastic thing about it is the huge range of people who take part - whatever your age or ability you can come and join in our free, unique, and most importantly fun, celebration of the best way of getting around."

Jeremy Darroch, Chief Executive of Sky, said: "It's only fitting that the culmination of what has been a great Skyride summer is held in our capital city. Working in partnership with British Cycling and local councils, the Skyride team has got tens of thousands of people on their bikes so far. I hope that the Mayor of London's Skyride will help us to encourage even more people back on their bikes. It's going to be a great day - I hope you can join us there."

British Cycling is supporting Sky, and just a few of the famous faces joining The Mayor of London and tens of thousands of cyclists on the day, include Olympic Gold Medalists Sir Chris Hoy and Jamie Staff. TV presenter Gethin Jones, who has been undertaking a 1000km cycle ride around the UK this summer to highlight the freedom and excitement that getting out and about on your bike can offer, will also take part.

Sir Chris Hoy commented: "Having just taken part in Skyride Glasgow this year, I'm really looking forward to being at the finale of the summer series. This will be my second year at the London event and I've got a feeling we're going to top last year's fantastic celebration of cycling. The sport is such an easy way to stay fit and healthy, because your bike can be taken with you wherever you go. The best part of these events is that it doesn't matter if you're a novice or a more experienced rider, they have something for all ages and abilities."

Mayor of London's Skyride is the final in a series of five city events that have taken place across the UK, encouraging people to get back on their bikes and enjoy the benefits of a fitter, healthier lifestyle. Tens of thousands of people of all ages and abilities have enjoyed fantastic days out in Manchester, Hounslow, Glasgow and Leicester since July. These are running alongside a series of over 400 smaller local and guided rides led by fully trained coaches from British Cycling, with over 100 Skyride Local events taking place in and around London. The local events continue into October, with full details on where they are taking place and registration available on www.goskyride.com.

Free registration for Mayor of London's Skyride is easy and takes no time at all - simply visit www.goskyride.com now to get involved. The website has tips and expert advice on how to ride comfortably and safely plus news from Sky's cycling ambassadors and British Cycling's stars.

Open doors into a colourful past

ONCE again it is time to open up the doors of some of the borough's more interesting buildings and wander around these architectural gems.

Over the course of the weekend an impressive 17 buildings in Haringey can be viewed for free as part of London's fascinating Open House event, alongside three walks – making us one of the busiest boroughs in the capital.

Arty types should welcome the opportunity to look around the grade II-listed Art Deco cinema, the Muswell Hill Odeon and the Tudor Manor house which has now turned into Bruce Castle Museum, in Tottenham, while the theatre and television studios at Alexandra Palace will be open this year.

Otherwise, lovers of antiquated buildings should pop into Highgate School Chapel & Big School, Hornsey Town Hall, The Old Schoolhouse in Hornsey, Coleridge Primary School, or the grade II-listed Hornsey Library.

Those of a more modern disposition will be intrigued by the modernists apartments of Highpoint

Take a peek: Hornsey Town Hall is part of the Open House event and Linear House, both in Highgate or the award-winning, eco-friendly Triangle Centre in Tottenham.

Walks are taking place throughout Muswell Hill and Tottenham and, after such exploration and exertion, a chance for reflection will be provided at St Augustine of Canterbury or the tower and churchyard of St Mary's Hornsey.

For more details of these and the variety of walks on offer go to www.openhouse.org.uk or find a brochure in your local library.

The Rhythm Bar and Lounge,
29 Park Road, Crouch End
020 8342 8822

IT'S been too long since we strutted into town feeling like Super Fly Guy and Foxy Brown.

But following our evening meal at new kid, Rhythm, we were in our '70s element and were slightly perplexed not to see Shaft hurtling through Crouch End at 200 miles an hour waving his high-powered shotgun, smashing into Tesco and nabbing some stick-up hoodlums.

With a pure retro feel to festivities – great tunes, bright orange decor – Rhythm is the sassiest, chicest little bar on the block that also boasts some rather tasty Caribbean cuisine to boot.

As laid back as Huggy Bear on Sunday afternoon, the mellow vibe and relaxed service eased our troubled souls, while the arrival of the menus perked us up leading to fantasies about Jamaican holidays this winter.

Quality rather than quantity seems to be the byword at Rhythm so a small selection of starters, mains and specials was rectified by them all sounding utterly delicious, leading to some tough decisions being made.

Finally, it was a case of jerk chicken parcels (from the specials board) for myself and salmon and saltfish cakes with a tangy sauce (all starters £4.95) for Foxy. I adored my little parcels which delivered that jerk kick without needing to have the full chicken shebang, while Foxy declared the cakes "very tasty" but did query whether there was enough fish in them.

Mains were an even tougher proposition but, fortunately, the funky little waitress was on hand to advise the, "Caribbean stewed beef which I tried earlier and was fantastic". So that's me sorted, but what about Ms Brown? She opted for another special – pan-fried snapper fillet with a sweet pepper sauce (both £10.95) which just edged it over the curry goat, Creole hot pot and the ackee and saltfish.

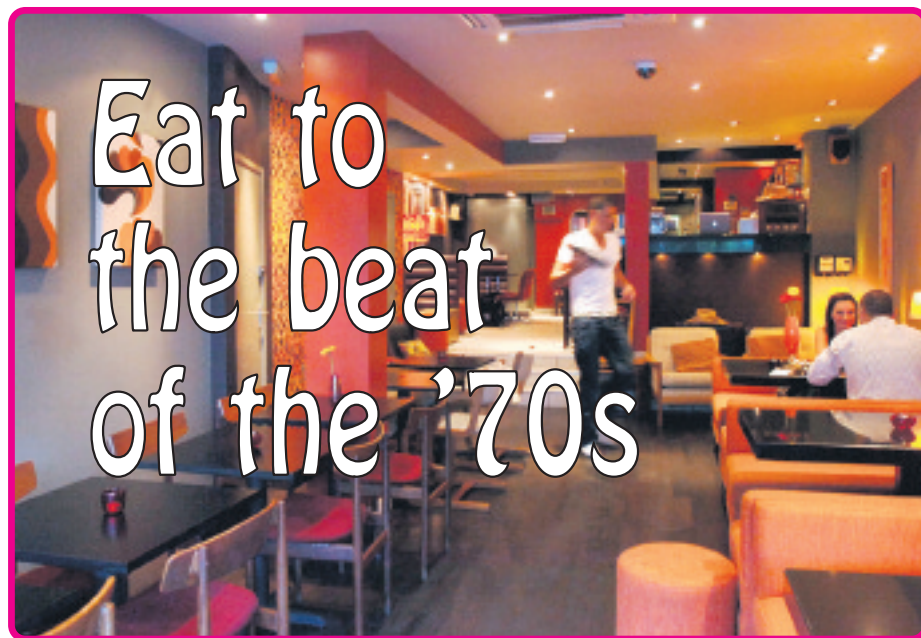

Served with some good rice and peas, my stewed beef had a strong, robust flavour made by a chef obviously in love with cooking – as proved in the snapper which was melt in the mouth delicious and did full justice to this highly prized fish's qualities.

Too full for dessert we lounged for a while longer, felt the rhythm, and headed into the night to throw some shapes and get down with the fever on the dancefloor...

● Food is served Mondays to Fridays, 5pm to 10pm, and 10am to 10pm on Saturdays and Sundays.

BTC Lettings market review:

● With not many property owners wanting to sell in this market, there is an overspill of properties to let, here at BTC we have over 200 properties to let

● We are letting 1-3 properties a day - up to 50 a month, i.e. ONLY THE BEST SURVIVE!

● With hunting tenants having soooo much choice, one thing is clear and very important. There is just too much competition, if you are thinking of letting your property, the condition/decoration will have to be of high standard, (laminare flooring would be a good tip!).

● Apart from poor condition, you may particularly struggle to find tenants if the property is above commercial property or in a high rise block.

● Landlords accepting tenants on housing benefit are achieving higher rent.

● Apart from gas safety certificate, all newly let properties must have an EPC certificate (Energy performance certificate).

If you have any more questions/queries relating to letting your property or current letting market, please call us on 020 8889 1118

CROUCH TARGETS A TILT AT TOP FOUR

Striker confident Spurs can fight at the top despite defeat to United

By Lee Husson

PETER CROUCH insists that Tottenham Hotspur can still gatecrash the Premier League's "big four", despite suffering their first defeat of the season against Manchester United on Saturday.

After a blistering start to the campaign which saw the side win their four opening games, Spurs were swept aside by the champions, who came from behind to record a 3-1 victory, despite Paul Scholes being sent-off.

But Crouch is firm in his belief that the White Hart Lane outfit can compete with the big guns at the top of the table, and says Spurs are desperate to prove that when they travel to London rivals Chelsea on Sunday.

"We've got fantastic quality and have to remember we've had a fantastic start," the frontman said.

"In spells we were the better side and it wasn't as though we were completely outclassed all game. For the first half-hour we looked liked scoring every time we went forward.

We know
we're close to the top teams.

"We know we're close to the top teams but they've been the top four for a number of years. We've got another chance to see how close we are against Chelsea. If we can get a result there, people will start talking us up again."

Manager Harry Redknapp

added: "I thought we might be able to push on when they went down to ten men, but we started to look for Crouch too early from deep positions rather than playing.

"I fancied us to get something from the game, but you know they are going to come back at you – that's why they are champions."

Spurs got off to a flyer when Jermain Defoe fired home a spectacular overhead-kick after just 38 seconds, but United roared back in style, and Ryan Giggs curled home a majestic free-kick to level before Anderson lashed home from the edge of the box.

Scholes was given his marching orders in the second half for picking up two bookings, but United remained in control and Wayne Rooney wrapped up the win after a devastating counter attack with 12 minutes left.

Looking ahead: Crouch expects to challenge at the right end of the table this season

Borough rewarded for battling display

Hillingdon Borough 0 Haringey Borough 0

Molten Spartan Premier Division

HARINGEY BOROUGH produced an excellent battling display to secure a hard-fought goalless draw at Hillingdon Borough on Saturday.

In a game of few clear chances it was the hosts – who were relegated from Ryman Division One North last season – who came closest to breaking the deadlock with a long-range effort which crashed back off the crossbar.

The experienced Opara brothers looked dangerous for Haringey, but the visitors suffered a blow before the interval when Kelechi was forced off with an ankle injury.

Hillingdon did most of the pressing in the first half, but it was a different story in the second period as Haringey stepped up a gear and enjoyed the majority of possession without seriously testing the home keeper.

Although Lloyd Opara almost snatched a late winner for the visitors when he latched on to a fine throughball from Abubakar Kargbo and flashed a shot inches wide of the far post, they were forced to survive a major scare deep in stoppage time as Lucas Williams snatched a shot wide from the edge of the box after working himself into a good shooting position.

Haringey Borough, who are without a game on Saturday, return to action at Chalfont St Peter on Tuesday (7.45pm).

Jegeni set to make ring return

HEAVYWEIGHT boxer Ervis Jegeni is set to make his comeback after more than two years out of action by returning to the ring later this month.

The 23-year-old Wood Green-based boxer made a big impact after turning professional four years ago and has won all five of his professional fights to date – but a succession of injuries have prevented him from competing since June 2007.

However, Jegeni is set to finally put his frustration behind him by competing at the Watford Colosseum against an as yet unknown opponent on September 25.

"All my problems are behind me now," said the Albanian-born fighter. "My training has gone smoothly and I'm ready to get back in the ring and fight.

"There are some good prospects out there, but none of them are as good as me and I'm going to prove it.

"I plan to be the number one in Britain in two years' time, and then I'm going to move on to fight for European and world titles."

Jegeni, who has been sparring with former British champion Danny Williams, had been due to make his comeback last October – only to suffer a broken nose and hand while training, keeping him out for almost a year.
